Washington (CNN) The United States designated Pakistan a "Country of Particular Concern" in its annual human trafficking report Monday for "numerous" instances of labor trafficking. The State Department report noted that with a population of 185 million, Pakistan is one of the world's top origins and transit for human trafficking in persons. "Pakistan is a country of particular concern (CPC) because of its history of forced labor, including child labor, forced prostitution, and forced domestic labor," the State Department's Office to Monitor and Combat Trafficking in Persons said in the report. It specifically cited labor trafficking of a variety of workers, including forced child labor, forced marriage and forced labor on and off the country's ships. Pakistan's child labor rates are among the highest in the world, according to the report.

(Photo: Dewayne Calvin) While the mainstream media is painting Donald Trump as a sexist, racist, and xenophobic bully, one grassroots organization is doing the opposite. "Patriot Action Network" is an organization that was created to "unite Americans who are steadfast in their faith in the Constitution of the United States." The mission statement reads, "We seek to encourage and promote patriotic action within our communities, state, nation, and world." Their objective? To turn the nation around and restore the United States of America as "a sovereign Christian nation governed by the Constitution of the United States of America." In short, PAT aims to turn back the tide of political correctness by encouraging Americans to do their part to uphold the principles of the U.S. Constitution. On its Facebook page, PAT notes that it is composed of "real American patriots" who "are the leaders of tomorrow." "We cannot entrust our freedoms, our way of life, or our destiny to the divisive, Constitution-hating politicians of political correctness, globalism, the left, or the enemies of Freedom and Liberty," their mission statement reads.
